Prof. Reza Omraie is the founder of NLP Coaching in Iran, an international trainer of NLP, Coaching, and Hypnotherapy, and the founder of the Iranian Coaching Association.

He is recognized as one of the pioneers in the professional standardization of Coaching and NLP in Iran and has successfully contributed to establishing these fields as officially recognized professions within the national vocational education system.

Prof. Reza Omraie is the designer and curriculum developer of the following specialized programs:

- Business Coaching
- Mental Health Coaching
- Children Coaching

Each program includes 120 hours of professional training and international certification through the global ICI Coaching organization.

He is also the founder and developer of the:

Omraie Intervention Model (OMR)

OMR is a transformational model integrating NLP, Coaching, Hypnotherapy, Personal Development, and Human Communication.

Prof. Reza Omraie is the author and translator of more than 20 books in the fields of:

- NLP
- Coaching
- Personal Development
- Hypnotherapy
- Human Communication

For many years, he has been actively involved in international teaching, trainer development, coaching education, and transformational training programs, educating numerous students and practitioners in NLP and Coaching across Iran and other countries.

Prof. Reza Omraie is the founder of the International Academy of NLP & Coaching and continues his international activities in education, research, and the development of transformational methodologies.

OMR

Inspire • Transform • Empower